The third annual session of this association convened last evening at Trinity Church, (Rev. Dr. Butler's.) Ere the hour had arrived for the opening exercises, the capacious and elegant audience-room was completely filled.

Hev. Gardiner Spring, of New York, then read the hymn commencing. read the hymn commencing,

"All hall the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall," and the whole audience united in that interest and the whole audience united in that interesting part of public worship. After which, the wenerable Doctor offered a most fervent prayer, and then read the 102d Psalm. He proceeded to remark, that the whole course of human events has but one tendency—to lead our minds to the living God. Whether in a religious assembly like this, or wherever duty urges us, we should look to him. Man's extremity was God's opportunity. He undervalued not the counsels of men, but the prayer of faith can avail much. Our hope is in God in these perilous times. The following hymn, prepared for the Convention, was sung by the congregation:

THE CHRISTIAN'S NATIONAL HYMN.

From North and South, from East and West, Around the Crosswe stand, To offer there the solemn prayer, And clasp the cordial hand.

Heart leaps to fleart, and eye to eye Unspoken thought returns, While in the breast of every guest The love of Jesus burns.

Though far from distant States we come From regions wide apart, One only aim, one precious name, Leads onward every heart.

That golden chain of mystic power, Descending from above, Binds every heart with holy art To Christ, the source of love.

All one in Christ! Oh, then to Him The joyous anthem raise—
To Christ, our King, in triumph sing
Adoring songs of praise.

Hail, Jesus, bail! thou Prince of Life. Enthroned in glory now! Victorious Lord! with one accord Our souls before Thee bow.

An address of welcome was then delivered by the Rev. Byron Sunderland, as follows:

Beloved Father, President, and Brethren of the Convention:
In the name and behalf of the Christian people of Washington, and of the ministers of the churches here, who have been identified with this great movement, we welcome you to our hearts and our homes, and extend to you our Christian greetings and congratulations, upon your safe arrival among us. We were glad when we heard, from our beloved brethren who represented us in the Convention at Philadelhis, that you had determined to hold the third Convention in Washington, during the present month. Immediately it was to us as a star of month. Immediately it was to us as a star of hope, springing forth in the sky of the future, and it has been during all this time shining before us as the light of our expectation.

We knew that when you should come you would bring with you the love of Jesus and the baptism of his most gracious spirit; and we longed to see you, to be cheered by your counsels and your prayers, and to be warmed by that sacred fire brought from so many altars throughout the land, which God has erected in the Union Prayer Meetings of the last few years, kindling thereon a flame which we hope may prove to be the deepening dawn of the coming glorious millennial moraing. e coming glorious millennial morning. Oh, fathers and brethren in Christ, our hearts have yearned out after you, and do yearn for all those of like precious faith, whose faces we have never seen in all the world. And when we have heard tidings, as from time to time we have done, from some of the more prominent points, where the standard of our common Lord was set up, when we have heard what great things God had wrought for the glory of his name, we have lifted the tribute of our praise, and gone on our way rejoicing. And now that you have come, we hope to hear more news of the blessed Kingdom, and how it fares in Master's gracious realms.

Master's gracious realms.

Brethreu, we are comparatively few and small, nothing so great in numbers and active power for good, perhaps, as you are in the more populous commercial and seaboard towns; but you will find one thing among us, we trust, which will delight your hearts: you will find one of the most perfect Christian unions, in our little band of love and sympathy and concord, which ex-ists anywhere on the face of the earth. Our ists anywhere on the face of the earth. Our congregations, indeed, are of the various titles of Methodist, Lutheran, Episcopalian, Baptist, and Presbyterian orders, but the heart and soul of us is one, and the name which is with us high above every other name is the ever-adorable name of Jesus. Oh! it is that name that shall be lifted up longer than the sun and moon en-

In the Federal metropolis of this great empire, God has cast our lot, where it often seems that a melstrom of social and political world-liness is surging and moving around us, and where, if it were not for the upholding power of God, his ark must be engulphed. Wickedness, we are sad to say, abounds on every hand, and we are often made to feel that its power is re-sistless and infernal; yet it is the wickedness common to an apostate race, and we would not cuse human nature here of more than it bears in other places of like manifold temptations.

Brethren, you have come among us at a time when the sky of our country is overcast by the most fearful clouds that have appeared during the present century, and when that sky is hung with contentous sixuals when the most fearful one sixuals when the same sixuals were sixuals with portentous signals, when the mutterings of thunder and the vivid flashes of the lightning, when the masses of the people are stirred with excitements like the sea and the waves raging with woful storms. On the bosom of these convulsions rocks the blood-bought church of Christ. Four millions of adult professing Christians scattered through this land, and thirty thousand evangelical ministers at their , are involved in the dangers which im pend; all our patriotism, philanthropy, and religion, and all the light of our great example among the nations of the earth, and all the fountains of sacred and redeeming influence which have been pouring their streams abroad upon the face of the earth, all our Christian charities and all our world wide missions all this is now likely to be impaired or to a great extent destroyed. The winds and waves of political adversity have risen up around us. But our faith in Jesus is as firm as ever. He slumbering for a little space, while the ele ments forbode a universal shipwreck. But still our faith in him is firm; we know he will not suffer his most righteous cause to perish. We cannot tell whether our political union will survive the tempest; but this we know, that whatever else may founder, he will arise in his majesty, and by the word of his power will save the ark of his covenant and the people of his

It may be that to this end he has brought into existence and continued these Union Prayer Meetings, as at this day—who can tell but that this instrumentality is the very Esther that has come to the Kingdom for such a time as this, and who shall say but that we see the sceptre of the great King stretched out, and hear his voice saying to her, What is thy peti-tion, and what is thy request? During the last three years, the Union Prayer Meeting has three years, the Union Prayer Meeting has grown strong with us.

It has borne up on its faith full many a burden of sorrow and of sin. For, like the dromedaries which brought up from the wilderness the stones of the temple at Jerusalem, it has bowed itself under the load, and by the heaving of its great muscles, enriched out of the strength of our impotence, it has lifted the vast interests of individuals and of communities up toward heaven. toward heaven.

Brethren, can you think that these muscles of prayer have become strong enough now to take upon them the burden of an empire, already shaking with the throes of dissolution, and bear up the destiny of a continent with all its races, its present turmoils and future hopes, undivided and unbroken?

It is or this cause arrong others that we undivided and unbroken?

It is for this cause, among others, that we welcome you here, and ask that you shall go in and out among us during your sojourn at the capital of the Republic, as though it were the capital of the Republic, as though it were your dwelling place, as it is the mutual and common heritage of all the people of the land. Be pleased, beloved fathers and brethren, to accept our Christian salutation and earnest hospitality—and may the God of heaven bless your coming hither, to the peace of our souls, to the prosperity of our country, to the furtherance of His cause on earth, and to the glory of His cause on earth, and to the glory of His cause on earth, and to the glory of His own great name.

The address was listened to with intense in terest, and at its conclusion the hymn commencing as follows was then sung:

"How pleasant thus to dwell below In fellowship of love."

In fellowablp of love."

Rev. Mr. Owen, of Baltimore, said that he was happy to say that the people of Baltimore have spent the entire day in prayer for our country. Let us tell our Senators and Representatives that we shall continue in earnest prayer to Almighty God, that he may restore peace and union to our distracted country.

Rev. Mr. Moores, of Boston, said that he felt encouraged to hope for the continued prosperity of the Union, from what he had lately seen and heard. We had examples in the Bible of great national distresses, on account of designing politicians. He cited the case of Ahasuerus and of Daniel; the city of Nineveh was to be overthrown in forty days. They repented, and God heard their cry. God lives, Christ lives, and he will reign.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Richmond, said the time hrist lives, and he will reign.

Rev. Dr. Moore, of Richmond, said the time had been when prayer was not beard; had not Christ died to save man, there never would have been such a thing as prayer. He related the circumstances of Christ walking with his disciples on their way to Emmans. So long as Christ is on the throne, this heart would no despond. The daily prayer meeting is a real ization of the daily sacrifices. He gloried in

Rev. Mr. Blair, of New York, expressed himself as being very grateful for the kind welcome he had received in Washington. The closing hymn was then sung, and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Dr. Spring.

SECOND DAY.

The Convention reassembled this morning, and effected a permanent organization, by ap pointing the following officers: President—W. H. Fowle, Alexandria.

President—W. H. Fowle, Alexandria.
Vice Presidents—Rev. Dr. Spring, New York; Mr. H. Hamlin, Boeton; Dr. Armitage, Baltimore; Mr. James Gordon, Richmond;
Rev. Dr. Samson, Washington.
Secretaries—Rev. M. Morrison, New York;
Rev. J. G. Butler, Washington.
On motion of Rev. Mr. Moore, of Boston, a committee was appointed to prepage husiness.

committee was appointed to prepare business. Rev. Mr. Moore of Boston, Rev. Dr. Sunder-land, and Dr. J. Hall Moore of this city, were appointed. In a few moments the comreturned, and reported in favor of holding the sessions as follows:

The morning prayer meeting in Wesley Chapel, from 8½ to 9½ & clock. Morning session of the Convention in Trinity Church, from 10 to 1 o'clock. Afternoon prayer meeting in Trinity Church, from 4 to 5 o'clock, and evening session in Trinity, at 74 o'clock.

After the adoption of the report, the Convention resolved itself into a devotional meeting, and was addressed by the Rev. E. Goodrich Smith and Rev. J. C. Smith.

The hymn "From every stormy wind that lows" was then sung.

Rev. Mr. Hagan, of New York, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to prepare, in behalf of the National Convention, an appeal, to be signed by the offi-cers of the Convention, to Christians of all denominations, to engage in daily and united prayer in behalf of our nation, in its present temporal and spiritual distress; that God would pardon our sins, and unite us altogether in Christ Jesus our Lord through the power of His Holy Spirit.

His Holy Spirit.

Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Cross, Sunderland,
Brauns, Cummings, of Delaware, Grigg, Reed,
Jones, of New York, Pardin, Hamner, Blair,
E. G. Smith, and Mr. Botsford, of Boston, spoke on the resolution, which was unanimously

After singing a verse, the report of the Central Committee was read and accepted. The report abounds with many instances of good ooth in the United States and Canadas.

Dr. Johnson moved that a committee be ap-pointed to wait upon the Speaker of the House of Representatives to request the use of the Hall for the Union Prayer meeting on to-morrow night.

Dr. Hamner seconded the motion, and was speaking when our report closed.

ORPHANS' COURT. - Judge Purcell. - This court was engaged to day in continuation of the petition of J. W. DeKraft, asking that some person be appointed guardian of the children of the late Mary E. Barney, and that the hus-land (S. Chars Barney) he evoluded from exof the late Mary E. Barney, and that the hus-band (S. Chase Barney) be excluded from ex-ercising any control of the children or their property, which application is founded on a divorce obtained by Mrs. Barney in the State

Mr. Magruder was addressing the court, taking the ground that this court had no dis-position of the affairs of persons whose parents

Messes. Chilton, Magruder, and Winder represent Mr. Barney, and Messes. Bradley and Fendall, Mr. DeKraft. CRIMINAL COURT .- This morning, Miss Julia

Dean, was tried for keeping a house of bad re-pute in Marble Alley, and found not guilty. Patrick Kenton was tried for an assauk and battery upon his wife and found not guilty.

Philip Stroebel, for stealing nearly a thousand dollars from Michael Friedenberger, on the 19th of August, was found guilty. Wm. Sullivan, for an assault and battery on a man by the name of Keysing, was being tried as our report closed. ATTEMPTED BURGLARY .- About four o'clock yesterday morning, an attempt was made to rob the shoe store of Mr. George C. Henning, on Seventh street, near Maryland avenue. Mr. Henning, who was occupying the room over the store, hearing the noise, got up and went down stairs, revolver in land. As soon as the burglars heard him, they beat a hasty retreat, leaving a large bowie knife behind in their haste. Mr. H. discharged two loads at the burglars, but, it is believed, without effect. He is in hopes they will call and get the bowie knife, as he has no use whatever for it.

The Republican Association will hold a meeting at the Wigwam to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. We understand an ad-dress will be delivered.

MELANCHOLY AFFAIR.—A sad affair happen in our river, off penitentiary wharf, on the night before last, resulting in the drowning of Mr. George Howard, who was some time since captain of one of the steamboats plying between Washington and Alexandria. It appears that about dusk, on that evening, Mr. Howard and his son, John Howard, a young man about 18 years of age, started from Washington in a small boat, to carry a load of oysters to Bladensburg. The evening was quite cold and inclement, and the boat swamped and sank off the peniteutiary, about dark. The mast of off the peniteutiary, about dark. The mast of the little vessel remained above water, and to it Mr. Howard and his son clung, till, admon-ished by the increasing darkness, and almost benumbed by the coldness of the water, Mr. Howard undertook to swim ashore and procure help, leaving his son still clinging to the mast of the yessel. Whether he reached the shore is not known, but his son believes he swam but a short distance, and was drowned. The steamer George Page, Captain Gedney, a few moments after, passed near the scene of the disaster on her mail trip down. The captain heard the cry of the son, and immediately lowered a boat and sent it to his relief. He was rescued, and taken on board the steamer, where every attention was paid him. morning, the body of Mr. George Howard had not been recovered.

CHURCH DEDICATION .- The Fourth Presby terian Church, which has been undergoing such thorough and extensive repairs, is to be dedicated next Sabbath, as we announced several days since. Rev. Dr. Chambers, of Philadelphia, is to preach in the morning, and the services will no doubt be full of interest.

WESLEY CHAPEL DAMAGED .- A spring under this church spring a leak some time during yesterday, considerably damaging the basement of the church, and rendering it entirely too damp to allow of the Prayer Meeting Conven-tion being held there, as was desired.

DECLINED .- We see by the Presbyterian that the Rev. P. D. Gurley, of this city, has, after mature reflection, concluded to decline accepting the office of corresponding secretary of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian church, to which he was lately elected.

OLD FOLKS COMING .- Father Kemp's Old olks, who created such a sensation in Wash-ngton two or three years ago, will be here again, and perform on the 27th and 28th of this ACCIDENT.—About eight o'clock last night, gentleman by the name of McGaffey drove is horse and wagon in the ditch at the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Third street. The only damage done was the breaking of the shafts and the harness. As usual, there was no light there. Is it always to be so?

FIRE.-Night before last, a stable on Ninth street, between I and K, (Navy Yard,) belong-ing to Mrs. Allen, was destroyed by fire. It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

A VISIT .- The Young Guard, of Georgetown, numbering about twenty-five youths, ac-companied by martial music, marched down to the Capitol to-day, for the purpose, as one of them observed, "of showing the star-spangled banner to the disaffected disunionists."

POLICE MATTERS.—Before Justice Cull.—A Mr. Neal took the liberty, on Sunday night, of battering the head of Mr. Thomas Mahon with a stick. He was committed to court to answer a stock. He was committed to court to answer.

Thomas Smith took it into his head to enter into the marriage state, and, with his "dulcinea," groomsmen, bridesmaids, &c., &c., was just in the act of entering the house of Rev.

Mr. Marks, to have the thing settled for "better or for wusser," when he was somewhat as-tounded to observe Susan Fletcher and Jane Mahala, two colored damsels, of not very limited proportions, making their way towards the party, each armed with a bucket of water, which they doused all over the fair and unsuspecting bride and bridesmaids. They were both ar-rested, but Thomas, for delicate reasons, withdrew the charge. The cause of the attack was, that Thomas had played the part of a "gay deceiver," and induced the two disciples of cold water to believe that each of them had a better right to his attentions than the lady on hi

POLICE CASES .- Before Justice Donn .- A man named James Brown was arrested, charged with being drunk and disorderly, and was fined $2.94.

A man named Charles Peacock was charged with the suspicion of having stolen a hog. The evidence disclosed the fact that the hog had evidence disclosed the fact that the hog had been poaching on forbidden enclosures, and had met with a bloody fate, and, for the pur-pose of having the bloody trophy removed, meeting a man, engaged in hauling provender, engaged him to make the removal. There betwo owners for the carcase, and no proof of theft, he was accordingly dismissed.

Patrick Foley was arrested, charged with hav-ing committed an assault and battery on his wife. The charge was preferred by a son of the parties. After examination, he gave seurity to keep the peace.

Patrick Given and Thomas Baggott were arrested by Deputy Marshall Phillips and officer Wise, charged with having severely beaten with bricks, a negro man named Andrew Brown. The former was committed to jail for further examination, and the latter was held for want of $300 security. The first informa-tion brought to the office was, that the negro was dead, or dying, but subsequent evidence disclosed the fact that Dr. Willet made an ex amination of the wound, which proved to be mere-ly a scalp wound. He was subsequently bailed, giving $500 security to appear at the Criminal

John Beane and John Ragan were arrested by officer Allen, charged with having commit-ted an assault and battery on John Kemp, and robbing him of six dollars in money. All of these parties are what is termed night-liners. The evidence disclosed the sayings and doings of that fraternity. After examination, they were all dismissed.

David Wheeler was arrested by officers Al-len, Stanly, and Busher, charged with having stolen a piatol from John Crowley, and passing some counterfeit gold pieces from W. E. Chand-lee. He was committed to jail for further ex-
